Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Myrtle Boswell has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, For the past fifty years, Myrtle has worked for the Third Judicial Circuit as clerk of courts and presently as a part-time deputy; and,

WHEREAS, Myrtle is being honored with an open house during the South Dakota Centennial Open Court Day observance in Hayti, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Myrtle has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that she be honored on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Mrytle Boswell's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 6, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends, relatives and co-workers in thanking her for her fifty years of service to Hamlin County and this great state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourth Day of October, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
